

More Family-Child Reading and Storytelling

In 1999, 69% of 3- to 5-year-olds were told stories or were read to regularly by someone in their family, up from 66% in 1993.

Prepared by the National Education Goals Panel.

A full color version of this infographic can be downloaded from www.negp.gov.